“The Seagull” For Year 12 Drama Students

Dear Parent/Caregiver

We have been fortunate in securing tickets to ‘The Seagull’.

“A paean to unrequited love, Anton Chekhov’s The Seagull is quite simply one of the greatest plays of the modern era.”
(http://www.bass.net.au/events/the-seagull.aspx)

The issues and production values of this work are directly related to the Year 12 Drama curriculum. Every student attending will have follow up discussions with their Drama teacher and be required to write a review of the performance as part of their SACE requirements. Through the review students will develop analytical skills relating to the director’s vision and the actor’s stagecraft in relation to live performance. It is also an excellent opportunity for Year 12 students to experience and enjoy a live performance which demonstrates key production ideas.

The performance will be held on Wednesday, 26 February, 2014 at The State Theatre Workshop, located within the Adelaide Festival Centre Drama Centre, beneath the Dunstan Playhouse, entry via the Space Theatre Foyer. However, all students will meet in front of the venue on the King William Road footpath at 5:30pm where we will then move to the performance as a group for the 6pm show. Students will need to be collected at the meeting point by a parent or caregiver at approximately 8:20pm. If alternative arrangements have been made such as a student walking, taking a bus or taxi home then, this must be confirmed prior to the performance with a parent note).

There is no cost for students as payment has already been collected through subject fees at the start of the year. Students do not need to wear school uniform but are instead required to dress neatly as they are representing the school at a public event. We encourage your student to attend this production.

Please sign the attached consent form and have it returned to the Ms Giles, Drama Teacher.

Yours sincerely
